VALUE OF ARBOR DAY OBSERVANCE

The Dominion Authorities Urge More General and Active Observance of the Day.

A special bulletin issued by the Canadian Commission of Conservation has the following to say concerning Arbor Day and its observance:

"Arbor Day is not observed in Canada to the extent which its importance warrants. The people of Canada must ever keep in mind their dependence upon her forests. With large areas suitable only for forestry purposes, it is essential that the value of trees and their protection should be thoroughly impressed upon Canadians.

"While Arbor Day is observed in the rural schools, and in some city schools, its recognition by the general public is not as general as it should be.

"In the province of Alberta, Arbor Day is a public holiday. It is very generally observed by the towns and school districts for the planting of trees and flowers. More general public recognition should be given to Arbor Day, and the planting and protection of shade trees, the preparation of flower and vegetable gardens, and the thorough cleaning up of homes and surroundings should be advocated as special duties for the day. Alberta is in need of trees, and every encouragement should be given to their increase.

"It is to be hoped, therefore, that the celebration of Arbor Day will become more general; that the planting and care of trees and shrubs around school houses, homes, public spaces and by roadside may have the effect of developing a keener appreciation of the value and beauty of trees; and that by thus enlarging the field of Arbor Day activities, greater interest may be created in the protection of our Canadian forests from the reckless destruction by fire and the axe with which they are threatened.

The second Friday in May is Arbor Day.

The Corn Products Refining Co., a United States corporation, capitalized at $80,000,000, has completed plans for opening a plant in Ontario. The proposed plant will use about 10,000 bushels of grain and consume over a million and a quarter gallons of water daily.

The Red Cross tea and sale of home-made cooking held in the club room of the Institutional church on Saturday afternoon and evening was quite a success, the receipts amounting to about $35. The lady manager in which the ladies had the room decorated elicited many favorable comments.

Herman Warren, a farmer of Annel, near Moose Jaw, on morning last, discovered six coyotes plundering his hen coop. When he attacked them the coyotes counter-attacked and Warren was forced to retreat to the top of his stable where he remained until his men came to his assistance and drove the coyotes away. Warren has the finest bunch of wolf hounds in the country—but they were locked in the stable.

Mr. Oscar Brindley has leased the building on Centre street formerly occupied by the Home Bakery and will open a photo gallery there in the course of the next couple of weeks. Mr. Brindley has always done a little in the photography line, and now that he has decided to enter permanently into that business he will no doubt specialize on the development of amateur work, concerning which a fuller announcement will be made in "The Bulletin" at a later date.

After John Keating had been dead for six hours and his obituary had been published in a Gulfport, Miss., newspaper, a burglar was called in to shave his corpse. As the razor scraped the man's cheek, his eyes opened, his lips parted and he said: "Don't cut me, kid." The barber dived through a window. A panic in the neighborhood followed. Physicians who were called were unable to understand the case.

Although Keating is now alive and well, they declare he was actually dead for six hours.

Newspaper men everywhere, at least those of them who have been blessed with average intelligence, agree that unless sixty per cent. of their space is filled with good, live, revenue-bearing advertising they are operating at a loss, claiming that forty per cent. is the maximum amount of reading matter that a newspaper can profitably carry. In newspaper circles the opinion is pretty generally held that a publisher who allows his space to be apportioned in any other ratio is either a philanthropist or a fool. The editor of the Blainville Enterprise last week boasted that out of a total of 21 columns he presented his readers with over fifteen columns of reading matter. But the revenue-bearing advertising in his paper occupied less than a third of his total space—or about half the amount which experienced men claim a newspaper must have in order to do business profitably. He compares his news matter with the amount "The Bulletin" carries and seems to find considerable satisfaction in doing so; but we would prefer to compare the percentage of advertising carried, though comparisons of this sort are rather puerile and more suited to the calibre of the man who presides over the destiny of our estimable contemporary. As for his fifteen columns of reading matter, here is a sample taken from the last issue of his paper:

"If six cats kill six rats in six minutes, how many cats will kill 100 rats in 30 minutes?"

If Editor Bartlett has arrived at the condition where he sees cats and rats in such numbers to warrant a "news item" concerning them, we would earnestly recommend that he try the Keeley cure. Fifteen columns of news matter! Rats!

THE PINCHER CREEK SOLDIERS CAPTURED

But Their Captors Prove to be Good Fellows And Hold Smoker in Their Honor.

The first football match of the season took place on the athletic grounds here on Saturday afternoon last, when the home team played an aggregation composed of members of the 13th Canadian Mounted Rifles now in training at Pincher Creek. The visitors put up a pretty good game, but the combination work of the Coleman veterans was too much for them and they lost out by a score of 3-0. There was a fair crowd in attendance and a number of visitors from The Foothills Town saw that the C. M. R. got their share of oral support from the side lines. It was plainly evident all through the game, however, that the boys from Pincher were unable to put up their best play on account of the extremely rough nature of the ground, to which they were unaccustomed. Had the game been played on level ground the result would have been different.

The Coleman boys held a smoker in Eagle hall in the evening in honor of the visitors. This event was presided over by Mr. Alex Cameron in his usual pleasing and capable manner, and a very merry time was spent.

The Coleman boys are now members of the 13th were to have been presented with watches during the afternoon, but the watches did not arrive and the presentation had to be postponed.

A good bunch of sports was the general comment on the visitors, and the hope has been freely expressed that it may be possible for them to visit Coleman again at some future date.

RED CROSS NOTES

The executive of the Coleman branch of the Red Cross Society desire to express their appreciation of the following courtesies in connection with the tea and pantry sale held in the club room of the Institutional church on Saturday afternoon last:

Institutional church, for the use of the club room; Oddfellows, for the loan of bunting; Messrs. H. G. Goodeve, H. C. McBurney and E. G. Graham, for the loan of decorations; the ladies for their assistance in serving tea, the management of the opera house and the best theatre for advertising, and all others who contributed towards making the affair such a grand success.

The following shipment of completed articles was sent forward to the headquarters of the Society at Calgary on Saturday last: 12 piumona jackets, 15 hospital shirts, 3 suits piumas, 12 many-tail bandages, 12 T bandages, 2 pair knitted socks, 2 Balachava caps, 10 handkerchiefs, 3 pair wristlets, 30 triangular bandages, 9 dozen roller bandages (contributed by Dr. Connolly) 1 nightgown, old linen.

May 1st is "Miners' Day" and a holiday throughout the mining camp of District 18. A dance will be held in the opera house on the evening of April 30th, music for which will be provided by Pasta's four-piece orchestra. A program of sports will also be held on the holiday mentioned, under the auspices of the Coleman and Carbondale locals. A smoker is also planned for the evening. The greater part of the sports program will be held on Main street.

The Lethbridge Herald says that on May 7th those squadrons of the 13th Canadian Mounted Rifles now in training at Pincher Creek, Macleod and Cardston will entrain for Calgary, where they will go into training in the big summer camp to be established on the Soreau reserve. All the squadrons have made excellent progress in their various camps, but the units are so split that further progress in the future has now made is impossible. At the Soreau camp the 12th C. M. R. will also be concentrated, and the unit in camp will total over 6,000.

Gerlie Warriner, aged 10, is dead and her brother, Edward, is in a hospital dangerously injured as the result of a bush fire into which they drove while going to school near Kamusick, Sask., a town east of Saskatoon on the C.N.R. Part of the road wound through a stretch of scrub and thick underbrush and a strong wind sprang up which fanned the flames to intense heat. Attempting to turn the rig, the wheels became entangled in the underbrush and the children started out on foot. The younger brother escaped, but in a few seconds the girl was overcome by the flames and fell to the ground. Edward picked her up but was unable to make headway through the smoke, and when the fire had swept past the charred body of the girl was found lying beside the road with every stitch of clothing burned off her body.

Which is no doubt the Herald's way

"A clean-up week for morals as well as luck yards might not be a bad idea," says the Calgary Herald. We have to make the suggestion, but the desire to remind the Herald that example is more effective than good advice is scarcely irresistible.

CHANGING FASHIONS

"The girls have grown weary of dresses so light that bystanders leery said they were a fright. Their skirts
were so scanty I often have wept,
when sister and auntie around me
have stopped. None could be more helpless in pinions of steel, yet patient
and goddess they stood the ordeal;
for women will suffer in silence and smile, they think 'twould be tougher to be out of style. No women have scampered or frolicked for years, their garments so hampered the lovable dears. But fashions are changing, and soon the wide gawff, they say, will be ranging all over the town. Our Bessies and Annes may dig from the chest
the gowns of their grannies and trot with the best. Their legs—beg your pardon, their limbs I should say—will have a whole garden in which they may play. The fashions' improving distinctly this year, like circus tents moving the girls will appear. And when we behold them in bonnets and hoses, the skirts that enfold them in tassels and lappis, we'll cry "Holy Moses! Is Fashion gone mad? She hasn't! Is Fashion gone mad? She hasn't! Is Fashion gone mad? She hasn't!"
